

Product Update

Introducing Everyday Round Up

On 28 September we launched a new feature on our Orange Everyday transaction account that will allow customers to automatically round up card purchases and save the difference. Orange Everyday customers are now able to round up everyday transactions to the nearest $1.00 (e.g. $3.50 to $4.00) or the nearest $5.00 (e.g. $3.50 to $5.00).

The round up amount - that is, the extra amount (eg. $0.50 or $1.50 in the examples above) - will then automatically be transferred from the customer's Orange Everyday into their nominated Savings Maximiser and be eligible for the applicable interest rate on funds in the Savings Maximiser.

Developed in conjunction with customers, Everyday Round Up represents one of many upcoming digital initiatives focused on helping customers get ahead.
